

I walk The streets...

I walk The streets at morning
My eyes see
Your eyes opens

I walk The streets at noon
My ears listens
Your ears hears

I walk The streets at afternoon
My mouth screams
Your mouth yarns

I walk The streets at evening

My nose breaths
Your noise smells

I walk The streets at night
My fingers plays
Your fingers touch

I walk The streets in moonlight
My heart breaks
Your heart relaxes

I walk The streets in sunrise
My brain dies
Your brain reboots
